

Photograph Power

The photographs in this assignment were to capture and communicate the word Power. I chose the motorcycle because it represents horsepower, the drum and stick for the power in motion, and the power grid as a more literal representation of power.

Included are additional submissions with the bridge representing the power in structure, and the boat, similar to the motorcycle, showing off the power of its engines.

